Character development for active life

NEWSLETTER

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Our mission targets young people and adults distanced from employment, lacking in formal training, and struggling with social or economic challenges. Traditional training methods have failed to inspire them; thus, our project aims to reignite their motivation and enhance their employability.

THE TRAINING PATHWAY

We've developed a unique training pathway, primarily focused on educators who work with these individuals. Our approach is practical, with short, effective tools tailored to the diverse challenges trainers face. This dual-objective project focuses on:

1. Empowering Trainers: We equip trainers with innovative methods to foster motivation in learners who feel disconnected from society.
2. Transforming Trainees: These trained educators will then guide the trainees, fostering conditions that encourage character transformation and resilience in facing life's challenges.

INNOVATIVE COURSE DESIGN

Our courses are groundbreaking, emphasizing the development of soft skills and intrinsic motivation through cognitive and behavioural neuroscience principles. We offer individualized learning experiences, recognizing the unique needs of each person.

ONLINE LEARNING RESOURCES

To complement our face-to-face training, we're introducing dynamic online resources. These include bite-size learning modules, perfectly suited to modern learning styles and ranging from 1-5 minutes, packed with engaging and motivational content.

OUTCOMES

Our project has yielded four significant results, each making a positive impact and tailored for application in partner countries:

1. Gathering of Best Practices: We've compiled a booklet of 30 top motivational techniques based on character development, ready for immediate use by adult trainers.
2. Character Development Educational Program: This includes a competence and skills matrix, pre-and post-assessment tools, and a motivational training program incorporating coaching, collaborative methods, and game-based learning.
3. Training Toolkit for Trainers: A comprehensive toolkit including training methods, development plans, and strategies, enhanced with an online resource guide.
4. Online Educational Resource Development: An eLearning platform with digitized content, including motivational videos and a toolkit for adult trainers, accessible in multiple languages.
